Message of thanks from the wedding on 14.11.15 :

Dear Julie,

I wanted to email you to say how much everyone enjoyed your wonderful choir on Saturday at our daughter's wedding. "Look at the world" is one of my favourites and it was one of the high spots for me, as well as Jerusalem of course! We were worried that people might start to chatter during the signing of the register but that was certainly not the case, the 2 blessings were lovely.

The happy couple were telling us that the wall of sound behind them was amazing and I know it would not have been so good without you all leading the congregation. She wanted lots of music and flowers at the church and she certainly got both of those. Please pass on our thanks to the choir, you are all brilliant,
